We invite you and a guest to join us on December 3 to kick off Reflection: Made Here, a project of Hennepin Theatre Trust.

Made Here fills windows and other underused spaces throughout the downtown Minneapolis Cultural District with art. Reflection features the work of more than 60 Minnesota artists and 20 students, exploring the "reflection" theme and is on display December 3, 2015, through March 30, 2016.
